Plaid is a licensed payment services provider offering innovative payment services.

The Dutch Central Bank approved the extension of Plaid's license. Plaid can now offer payment initiation services in addition to account information services.

Plaid is offering these services in the Netherlands and on a cross border basis in member states of the European Union. We wish the Plaid team every success and hope for a prosperous growth.

Casper Riekerk and Marijke Kuilman were involved in the process of the extension of Plaid's license
