Finnius maintains its Band 2 ranking in Chambers FinTech 2021

14 December 2020

 1 MINUTE

We are proud to announce that the renowned international league table Chambers has recommended Finnius again in its FinTech 2021 edition in the category FinTech: Legal. We have been included in band 2. This is the same band as last year.

FinTech: Legal

Chambers writes: “Finnius is one of the largest financial regulatory law boutiques in the Netherlands. Its staff are predominantly senior practitioners with years of experience in previous roles at larger, international law firms. The firm combines both non-contentious and contentious regulatory services in advising on MiFID and PSD2 as well as assisting in sensitive investigations and enforcement proceedings. The firm often lobbies directly with the legislator on behalf of clients.”

Testimonials

In addition, our clients have, inter alia, shared the following testimonials: “Finnius has a hardcore regulatory team and offering.” And: “For startups they’re excellent – they have a strong bench of lawyers who do lots of financial regulatory work.”

Furthermore, Casper Riekerk has been singled out as one of the recommended lawyers. Chambers writes: “Casper Riekerk is a partner who focuses on market access and compliance matters. His expertise extends to litigation against supervisory authorities and criminal investigations into financial institutions. Riekerk spent over 12 years of his career at the Dutch Central Bank, including as head of the enforcement department. “Casper is a real asset for the firm because of his background in the Dutch Central Bank,” insists a market expert. “He’s a very relaxed and knowledgeable guy, perhaps a little academic too. Ultimately he’s got lots of experience in this field and was great for us.”
