We are proud to announce that the renowned international league table Chambers has recommended Finnius again in its FinTech 2021 edition in the category FinTech: Legal. We have been included in band 2. This is the same position we had last year.

FinTech: Legal

Chambers writes: “Finnius is one of the largest financial regulatory law boutiques in the Netherlands. Its staff are predominantly senior practitioners with years of experience in previous roles at larger, international law firms. The firm combines both non-contentious and contentious regulatory services in advising on MiFID and PSD2 as well as assisting in sensitive investigations and enforcement proceedings. The firm often lobbies directly with the legislator on behalf of clients.”

And:

“They have an excellent financial regulatory practice.”

His expertise extends to litigation against supervisory authorities and criminal investigations into financial institutions. Riekerk spent over 12 years of his career at the Dutch Central Bank, including as head of the enforcement department. A market peer says he is “pragmatic in regulatory work.””
